Golden Retriever Cork Pet

Solid American pewter · Changeable wine cork · Sculpted in Florida

A favorite bottle is soon emptied, but the cork can be kept: a small record of a wedding, an anniversary, a birthday, or an ordinary evening worth remembering.

This Golden Retriever Cork Pet is sculpted by artist Lori Strickland and made in Florida, in solid American pewter, lead and cadmium free. The retriever pulls apart so the cork can be changed, and a new memory set in its place. It is part of the Vino Menagerie collection.

It might have stood on a family table after a celebration, or on a desk for someone who keeps a well-loved dog close, even after the bottle is gone.

A little pewter retriever, ready to keep a good bottle's memory — and a little history — close.
