Christmas Holly Wreath

Limited edition 1983 · Signed P 1983 · Crieff, Scotland

A paperweight is a small, private garden: this one holds a wreath of holly, stilled in glass, ready to sit at the edge of a desk and catch the light.

Perthshire began in 1968, founded by Stuart Drysdale in Crieff, Scotland. The workshop became known for limited-edition paperweights, including lampwork designs, and remained at work until 2002.

This is the 1983 "Christmas Holly Wreath": a holly wreath tied with red and green ribbon, on a white lace latticino ground. It is marked with a Perthshire signature cane, P 1983, on the base, and comes in its original presentation box, labeled Perthshire Paperweights, Crieff, Scotland.

A signed wreath, always in season.
